

Set 4 (answers p. 223)

1. One criticism that is commonly leveled against remote work is that employees, who work from home, have difficulty controlling the boundary between their personal and professional lives. _____, in a recent survey, remote workers reported a fairly good fit—5.3 on a 7-point scale—between their work and non-work lives.

Ⓐ Therefore,

Ⓑ Similarly,

Ⓒ However,

Ⓓ Moreover,

2. As a college student at Mt. Holyoke, the playwright Suzanne-Lori Parks was steered toward writing plays rather than fiction because of her penchant for drama. _____ she had a tendency to act out all the characters' voices when she read her short stories aloud in class.

Ⓐ As such,

Ⓑ Specifically,

Ⓒ In addition,

Ⓓ Consequently,

3. Attempting to decipher all of the factors that influence the behavior of complex ecosystems is a daunting task. Researchers at MIT have demonstrated the possibility of predicting their behavior from just two pieces of _____ the number of species in the community and the strength of their interactions with one another.

Ⓐ information, however

Ⓑ information; however,

Ⓒ information however,

Ⓓ information, however:

4. Many odors are formed by volatile compounds that disintegrate _____ so widely that they can no longer be detected by a person's nose. As a result, smells tend to linger in the air for no more than a few seconds.

Ⓐ easily, they disperse

Ⓑ easily dispersing

Ⓒ easily; dispersing

Ⓓ easily, dispersing

5. While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Jacob Lawrence was a mural painter.
- His vibrant patterns and simplified, angular figures created powerful, direct images.
- His most famous work is the Migration Series (1940-41): 60 panels depicting African Americans' migration from the rural south to northern cities after World War I.
- Half the panels are in the Museum of Modern Art; the others are in the Phillips Collection.
- In 1954-56, he produced Struggle, a 30-panel series focusing on neglected aspects of American history from 1775-1815.

The student wants to emphasize the large scale of Jacob Lawrence's work. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes to achieve this goal?

Ⓐ Lawrence's Struggle series contained only half as many panels as the Migration series.

Ⓑ Lawrence's murals, which consist of series of panels, feature bold and angular designs.

Ⓒ In the 1940s and 1950s, Lawrence created projects consisting of dozens of panels to show a wide range of historical events.

Ⓓ Lawrence's Migration Series, his best-known work, is divided between the Museum of Modern Art and the Phillips Collection.

6. The use of text in the visual arts can be traced back to cubist painters such as Georges Braque and _____ both painted and collaged—into still lifes. Playing with language was also central to the Dadaists, who left an important legacy with their daring, often humorous use of language.

Ⓐ Pablo Picasso, who added letters and words—

Ⓑ Pablo Picasso, who added letters and words

Ⓒ Pablo Picasso, who added letters and words,

Ⓓ Pablo Picasso, who added: letters and words

7. The satyr plays produced in ancient Greece should not be confused with the satires performed in Rome. The Romans developed an independent tradition of satire, one of the few literary genres that _____ created.

Ⓐ he or she

Ⓑ it

Ⓒ this

Ⓓ they

8. Synesthesia, a phenomenon whose name derives from the Greek meaning “to perceive together,” comes in many varieties. People who experience this condition may _____

- Ⓐ smell in color; see numbers as shapes, or taste specific flavors when hearing certain words.
- Ⓑ smell in color, see numbers as shapes; or taste specific flavors when hearing certain words.
- Ⓒ smell in color; see numbers as shapes; or taste specific flavors when hearing certain words.
- Ⓓ smell in color; see numbers as shapes or specific flavors are tasted when certain words are heard.

9. Astronomers have recently discovered a stellar binary, or pair of stars, with an extremely short orbit of 51 minutes. The system appears to be a rare type of binary, known as a cataclysmic variable, _____ a hot, dense core of a burned-out star.

- Ⓐ in which a star similar to the sun orbits tightly around a white dwarf—
- Ⓑ where a star similar to the sun orbits around a white dwarf tightly,
- Ⓒ that a star similar to the sun orbits tightly, around a white dwarf
- Ⓓ which a star, similar to the sun orbits tightly around a white dwarf and

10. The Komodo dragon, a reptile with ancestors that date back more than 100 million years, is the largest lizard in the world. The yellow color of its long, forked tongue is indeed reminiscent of a fire-spitting dragon. _____ its heavy, scaly body recalls that of the mythical creature.

- Ⓐ Consequently,
- Ⓑ Specifically,
- Ⓒ In contrast,
- Ⓓ Likewise,